Treść raportu:

The Management Board of Carlson Investments SE, headquartered in Warsaw, Poland (the Company, the Issuer), in reference to current report No. 29/2021 dated October 12, 2023, announces that on May 11, 2023, it was informed by its partner CARLSON EVIG Alpha VC Fund that their medtech portfolio company Nutrix AG (hereinafter Nutrix), successfully closed its second round of financing, raising a total of PLN 8 million ($1.8 million). The funds will be used to develop the business on international markets, particularly in South America, and to continue research and development in Poland.

Nutrix AG is a Swiss medical technology startup that focuses on developing software and artificial intelligence algorithms to help monitor glucose present in saliva and treat diabetes. The startup's overarching goal is to use the full potential of artificial intelligence to give patients the ability to monitor their health in an easy, non-invasive and painless way. Read more at: <https://nutrix.tech>

The Issuer's Management Board considers the above information as positive, as it proves that Nutrix is consistently implementing the adopted development strategy and the entity's investment attractiveness is confirmed by the closing of another round of financing and the trust of new investors gained.
